SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

3. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital, conversion into other shares in the Company or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.
4. Subject to the provisions of section 57 of the Law, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company or the shareholder are liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company, before the issue of these shares may by special resolution determine.

5. If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may, subject to the provisions of sections 59A and 70 of the Law, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be amended or abolished with the sanction of a resolution approved in accordance with the provisions of section 59A of the Law at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate general meeting all the provisions of these Articles and of the Law relating to general meetings of the Company or to the proceedings thereat shall apply, mutatis mutandis, except that the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding, or representing at least one third in nominal value of the issued shares of the relevant share class but if at any adjourned meeting of such class such quorum is not present, those holders who are present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.
6. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class shall not (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
7. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 52 of the Law, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten per cent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
8. Except as required by the Law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these Articles otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

Irrespective of the above but always subject to the provisions of section 112 of the Law, the Company may if it so wishes and if it receives notice in writing in relation thereto recognise the existence of a trust on any share even if it cannot register it in the Register of Members. Such recognition is made known by letter to the trustees and may not be revoked so long as the trust continues to exist, even if the trustees or some of them are replaced.
9. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the Register of Members shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of 20 cent for every certificate after the first or such less sum as the directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall be under seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders, shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

10. If a share certificate be defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced with a new certificate on payment of a fee of 20 cent or such less sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company of investigating evidence, as the directors think fit.
11. The Company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan or guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of or for any shares in the Company or in its holding company, nor shall the Company make a loan for any purpose whatsoever on the security of its shares or those of its holding company, but nothing in this Article shall prohibit transactions mentioned in the proviso to section 53(1) of the Law.

SECURITIES IN UNCERTIFICATED FORM

12. (A) Nothing in these Articles shall preclude any share or other security of the Company from being issued, held, registered, converted, transferred or otherwise dealt with in uncertificated form, having regard to the terms of issue, the Law or any other applicable law or regulations of any Regulated Market or unregulated market to which the shares or securities of the Company are admitted for listing or trading. In relation to any share or other security which is in uncertificated form, these Articles shall have effect subject to the following provisions:
 - (a) the Company shall not be obliged to issue a certificate evidencing title to shares or securities and all references to a certificate in respect of any shares or securities held in uncertificated form in these Articles shall be deemed inapplicable to such shares or securities which are in uncertificated form; and
 - (b) the registration of title to and transfer of any shares or securities in uncertificated form shall be sufficient for its purposes and shall not require a written instrument of transfer.
- (B) The board of directors may:
 - (a) give notice in writing to any member holding relevant shares or securities in uncertificated form requiring the member to change his holding of such shares or securities from uncertificated form into certificated form within a specified period and then to hold such relevant shares or securities in certificated form until the issue of a withdrawal notice; and

- (b) appoint any person to take any steps, by instruction by means of an uncertificated system or otherwise, in the name of any holder of relevant shares or securities as may be required to change such shares or securities from uncertificated form into certificated form (and such steps shall be effective as if they had been taken by such holder).

LIEN

13. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all monies, which for any reason and for any cause are presently payable by him or his estate to the Company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon and to any capital or other monies which may at any time be payable by the Company to this person.
14. The Company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
15. To give effect to any such sale, the directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any probable irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
16. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and, after payment of the costs of such sale, the net proceeds shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

ISSUE OF SHARES

17. Unless otherwise determined by the Company in accordance with the provisions of section 60B of the Law and subject always to the provisions of section 60B(2) of the Law, where the shares to be issued are to be issued for a cash consideration, any additional shares approved to be issued and all securities which may be converted into shares shall be offered to the members in proportion (or as nearly as practical in proportion) to the number of shares held by them as at a particular date specified by the directors for the purpose and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or securities which each member may take and limiting the time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of a statement from the member to whom such notice was given that he declines to accept the shares or securities offered, the directors may distribute or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons and under such terms as they may think fit.

If for any reason whatsoever there is any difficulty in the offer of shares or securities referred to above in this Article 17, such difficulty shall be resolved by decision of the board of directors, unless the general meeting of the Company has otherwise determined.

CALLS ON SHARES

18. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on the shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed dates, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the date or dates and place of payment) pay to the Company on the date or dates and at the place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be postponed or wholly or in part revoked as the directors may determine.
19. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed and may provide for payment in instalments.
20. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
21. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the date appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the date appointed for payment thereof to the date of actual payment at such rate of interest not exceeding nine per cent. per annum, as the directors may from time to time determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
22. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

23. The directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares, for a difference between the holders of different classes of shares as to the number of calls, the amount to be paid on every call and the time of payment.
24. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise decide, subject to the provisions of any law in force for the time being) nine per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon between the directors and the member paying such sum in advance. Any amount paid up in advance of calls shall not entitle the holder of the shares upon which such amount is paid to participate in respect thereof in any dividend until the same would but for such advance become presently payable.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

25. Transfers of shares may be effected by instruments of transfer in the usual or common form, or in any other form, including electronic form, as may be approved by the directors. Nothing, however, in these Articles shall preclude transfers of shares or other securities of the Company in uncertificated form in accordance with the terms of Article 12 above and any references contained in these Articles in relation to the execution of any instrument of transfer or the registration of any transfer of shares or other securities of the Company in uncertificated form shall be read in conjunction with Article 12 above.
26. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.
27. Subject to applicable law or the regulations of any Regulated Market or unregulated market to which the shares or securities of the Company are admitted for trading, the registration of transfers of shares or of any class of shares may be suspended whenever the directors determine, provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.
28. Subject to applicable law or the regulations of any Regulated Market or unregulated market to which the shares or securities of the Company are admitted for trading, the directors may decline to register any transfer of shares which are not fully paid or shares on which the Company has a lien. The directors may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:

- (a) the instrument of transfer is duly stamped (if by law it is required to be stamped), is deposited at the registered office or such other place as the directors may appoint accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
- (b) the instrument of transfer is in respect of any one class of share; and
- (c) in the case of a transfer to joint holders, they do not exceed four in number.

PLEDGE

29. Any share may be pledged or given by a member as security for a loan, debt or obligation without the approval of the directors.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

30. In the case of the death of a member, the survivor or survivors, where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder or the only surviving holder, shall be the only persons entitled to be recognised by the Company as having any title or interest in his shares; but nothing contained in this Article shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
31. Any guardian of a minor member and any curator or other legal representative of a member under legal disability and any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof.
32. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered as the holder of the share, he shall testify his election by executing to that person an instrument of transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice as aforesaid as would have existed had such transfer occurred before the death, insolvency or bankruptcy of the member concerned.
33. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings or written resolutions of the members of the Company.

Provided always that the directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

34. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and any expenses which may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
35. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
36. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, each share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time, thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.
37. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit. The directors may authorise any person to transfer a forfeited share to any other person as aforesaid.
38. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of these shares, with interest thereon at a rate determined by the directors not exceeding ten per cent. per annum from the date of forfeiture until payment, and the directors may enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture. Such person's liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all moneys due to the Company in respect of these shares, including interest as aforesaid.

39. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director or the secretary of the Company, and that a share in the capital of the Company has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to have any right on the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
40. The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture, shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

41. The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any fully paid-up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into fully paid-up shares of any nominal value.
42. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or in a manner as near thereto as circumstances admit; the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of transferable stock in reserve but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
43. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose. But no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by holding an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
44. Such of the provisions of the Articles of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

45. The Company may from time to time by a resolution taken in accordance with the provisions of section 59A of the Law increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

46. The Company may by resolution taken in accordance with the provisions of section 59A of the Law:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a greater value than its existing shares;
 - (b) subdivide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of a smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of section 60(1)(d) of the Law;
 - (c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
47. This Article 47 applies where there has been a consolidation and/or division of shares, and as a result, members become entitled to fractions of shares. In any such case the directors may (a) sell in the market the shares representing the fractions to any person for the best price reasonably obtainable, (b) authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser or any other documents whatsoever in connection with such transfer, and (c) distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares. Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of any such sale as aforesaid amounts to less than a minimum figure determined by the shareholders, that member's portion may be distributed to an organisation which is a charity for the purposes of the laws of Cyprus as the board may, in its sole discretion, determine. The person to whom any shares are transferred as aforesaid is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions and the transferee's title to such shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to their sale.
48. The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in the manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised, and consent required, by the Law.

PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

49. Subject to the provisions of the Law, the Company may purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares).

GENERAL MEETINGS

50. The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.

51. All general meetings other than the annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
52. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting; extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 126 of the Law. If at any time there are not sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any two members of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner or in a manner as near as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

53. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice at the least, and a meeting of the Company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice at the least subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of section 127 of the Law. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business (and if and for so long as the shares of the Company are admitted to trading on an organised market, the additional content specified in section 127A of the Law) and shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be described by the Company in general meeting or permitted by the Law, to such persons as are, under the Articles of the Company, entitled to receive such notices from the Company;

Provided that (except for so long as the shares of the Company are admitted to trading on an organised market and the Law otherwise requires) a general meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

54. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the nonreceipt of notice of a meeting, by any person entitled to receive notice, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
55. Nothing in these Articles shall preclude supplying, publishing or sending notices or documents relating to general meetings in electronic form in accordance with the provisions of Article 56 below and any references contained in these Articles in relation to delivering a notice or a document relating to a general meeting shall be read in conjunction with Article 56 below.
56. (a) The directors may make such arrangements or regulations as they may, from time to time, in their absolute discretion think fit, in relation to the giving of notices, notifications or other documents by electronic communication by or to the Company and otherwise for the purpose of implementing and/or supplementing the provisions of this Article in relation to electronic communication and such arrangements and regulations (as the case may be) shall have the same effect as if set out in this Article.

(b) When the Company has given an electronic address in a notice calling a meeting, it is deemed to have agreed that any document or information relating to proceedings at the meeting may be sent by electronic means to that address (subject to any conditions or limitations specified in the notice). When the Company has given an electronic address (i) in an instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting, or (ii) in an invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting, it will be deemed to have agreed that any document or information relating to proxies for the meeting may be sent by electronic means to that address (subject to any conditions or limitations specified in the notice).

(c) For the purpose of this Article, documents relating to proxies include (i) the appointment of a proxy in relation to a meeting, (ii) any document necessary to show the validity of, or otherwise relating to, the appointment of a proxy and (iii) notice of the termination of the authority of a proxy.

(d) In this Article 56:

“electronic address” means any address or number used for the purpose of sending or receiving documents or information by electronic means, including to allow for the remote conduct of any meeting;

“document” means information recorded in any form; and references to delivering a document include forwarding, lodging, registering, sending, producing or submitting it or (in the case of a notice) giving it.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in these Articles to the contrary, any notice or other document to be given or sent to any person by the Company is also to be treated as given or sent where the Company publishes the notice or other document required to be given or sent to that person on the Company's web site and any such notice or other document shall be treated as being given or sent at the time of first publication on the Company's web site.

(f) Nothing in this Article 56 shall invalidate the proceedings of the meeting where the notice or other document is published for a part, but not all, of the period mentioned in Article 53 above and the failure to publish the notice or other document throughout the period is wholly attributable to circumstances which it would not be reasonable to have expected the Company to prevent or avoid.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

57. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all business that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring, if any, and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.
58. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided in these Articles and/or as required by applicable law, five members entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, present in person or by proxy, shall be a quorum.
59. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
60. All notices and other communication relating to any general meeting which every member is entitled to receive must also be sent to the auditors and the directors of the Company. The directors and auditors shall be entitled to attend and speak at any meeting of the members.
61. The chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

62. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as chairman or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
63. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
64. At any general meeting any resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
 - (a) by the chairman; or
 - (b) by at least five members present in person or by proxy; or
 - (c) by any member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (d) by a member or members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

Unless a poll be so demanded, and subject for so long as the shares of the Company are admitted to trading on an organised market to the provisions of section 139A of the Law, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

65. Except as provided in Article 66 below, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

66. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.
67. Save as provided in this Article 67 and otherwise in these Articles, all the provisions of these Articles and of the Law relating to general meetings of the Company and to proceedings thereat shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to every class meeting. At any class meeting, the holders of the shares of the relevant class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of each share of that class held by each of them.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

68. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, and subject to any special provisions of these Articles, on a show of hands every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder. On a poll a member entitled to more than one vote need not use all of his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way. At the discretion of the board of directors, and as notified, a member present in person or by proxy attending via remote conference or electronic means may be entitled to vote.
69. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.
70. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by the administrator of his property, his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of an administrator, committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by the court, and any such administrator, committee, receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
71. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares he holds in the Company have been paid.
72. Except as otherwise provided in these Articles or the Law, no person shall be entitled to be present and take part in any proceedings or vote either personally or by proxy at any general meeting unless he has been registered as the owner of the shares in respect of which he proposes to vote.
73. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

74. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy and any member and any proxy appointed by a member shall have the right to cast all or some of the votes to which such member or proxy, as the case may be, is entitled in favour of and/or against the resolution in question (and need not cast all of the votes in favour of or against such resolution) and/or abstain from voting on the resolution in question in respect of all or some of his votes. For example and for the avoidance of doubt, a member or proxy may cast some of his votes in favour of a resolution, some of his votes against the same resolution and at the same time abstain from voting on such resolution in respect of his remaining votes.
75. Every member may appoint one or more proxies to be present at the same event by one or more instruments, provided that (i) the presence in an event of the person mentioned first on the instrument appointing a proxy shall preclude any other person mentioned therein from attending , and (ii) the presence in the event of the member who has appointed the proxy shall preclude the proxy from attending.

The directors may at the expense of the Company send by post or otherwise to the members instruments of proxy (with or without provision for their return prepaid) for use at any general meeting, or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the Company either in blank or nominating any one or more of the directors or any other persons. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one or more of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the Company's expense they shall be issued to all (and not some only) of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.
77. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. For so long as the Company's shares are admitted to trading on an organised market, a proxy may also be appointed by electronic message addressed to the Company. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. For so long as the Company's shares are admitted to trading on an organised market, a proxy may be either a natural person or a legal person. A legal person appointed as proxy shall by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such natural person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at the general meeting concerned.
78. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company, or the electronic message appointing a proxy shall be sent to the Company's electronic address specified for this purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not later than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument or electronic message proposes to vote, or shall be delivered at the place or sent to the Company's electronic address specified for this purpose in the notice convening the meeting in such manner and at such time as may be specified in such notice. In the case of a poll at a time other than the meeting at which a poll was demanded, the instrument or electronic message appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the place specified for the taking of the poll or sent to the Company's electronic address, as appropriate, at least fifteen minutes before the time appointed for the taking of the poll. Unless the contrary is stated thereon the instrument or electronic message appointing a proxy shall be as valid for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates.

82. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or contents of an electronic message appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing or by electronic message of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at the registered office or the Company's electronic address before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

If a member is by any means in communication with one or more other members so that each member participating in the communication can hear what is said by any other of them, each member so participating in the communication is deemed to be present in person at a meeting with the other members so participating, notwithstanding that all the members so participating are not present together in the same place. A meeting at which any or all of the members participate as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a general meeting of the Company for the purposes of these Articles notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, and all of the provisions of these Articles and of the Law relating to general meetings of the Company and to the proceedings thereat shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to every such meeting. (B) No Director Nominee shall be elected to office if such election were to cause the number of non-independent directors to be equal to or exceed the number of independent directors and, for the avoidance of doubt, all other provisions of this Article 90 shall be read subject to the provisions of this paragraph (B).

(C) If, at any general meeting, the election of all Director Nominees would cause the number of directors to exceed the maximum number of directors permitted under Article 87 (as may be amended from time to time) (the "Maximum Number of Directors"), the election of directors shall be determined as follows:

(i) any Director Nominee who holds the office of executive director and who receives more positive votes than negative votes shall be deemed elected irrespective of whether any one or more of the other Director Nominees have received more positive votes;

(iii) once the Maximum Number of Directors has been elected (as determined following the determination of all the Directors Election Resolutions), the remaining Director Nominees shall be deemed not to have been elected, notwithstanding any such Director Nominee having received more positive than negative votes;

(iv) if two or more Director Nominees receive the same number of positive votes, the Director Nominee who receives (as between such Director Nominees) the fewer negative votes shall be deemed elected;

(v) if following the selection referred to in paragraph (iv) above two or more Director Nominees have received an equal number of positive votes and also the same number of negative votes, a second poll shall be taken as between the relevant Director Nominees and the procedure set out in paragraphs (ii) and (iv) above shall apply mutatis mutandis;

- (i) all the directors who at the particular time are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of the directors shall be entitled to receive notice of a meeting by means of a telephone or other means of communication and to be connected by telephone or other such means of communication for the purposes of such meeting. A notice for such meeting may be given by telephone or other means of communication;
- (ii) each director participating at the meeting must be able to hear each one of the other directors participating at the meeting; and the minutes of the proceedings at such a meeting shall constitute sufficient evidence of such proceedings and the observance of all necessary formalities, if certified as true minutes by the chairman of the meeting or the secretary.

(c) The provisions of paragraphs 124(a) and (b) above shall apply mutatis mutandis to committees of directors.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

125. The directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to the office of executive director or executive directors for such period and on such terms as they think fit. Subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case the directors may revoke such appointment.

126. An executive director shall receive such remuneration (whether by way of salary, commission or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another) as the directors may from time to time determine.
127. The directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon the executive directors all or any of the powers exercisable by them as they may think fit, but the exercise by an executive director of any powers shall be subject to any regulations and/or restrictions as the directors may from time to time determine or impose and such powers may at any time be withdrawn or varied.

SECRETARY

128. The secretary shall be appointed by the directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit. The directors may, if they so wish, appoint one or more persons to act as assistant secretary. Any secretary or assistant secretary so appointed may be removed by the directors.
129. A provision of the Law or these Articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or with respect to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by it being done by or with respect to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, the secretary.

THE SEAL

130. The board of directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, which shall only be used by the authority of the board of directors or of a committee of the board of directors, and every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed by one director or alternate director or by the secretary.
131. The Company may have an official seal, in addition to the seal mentioned above, which shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 36(1) of the Law and shall be used for the purposes mentioned in this section.

MEETINGS ABROAD

132. Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles applicable to the Company, the meetings of the directors and the general meetings of the Company (annual and extraordinary) may be convened and held in Cyprus or abroad in any town or place, or remotely, as the majority of the directors or the members, as the case may be, may request in writing.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE

133. The Company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

134. Subject to the provisions of the Law, the directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the directors to be justified by the profits of the Company.
135. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of profits.
136. The directors may set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the directors, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may properly be applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the directors may from time to time think fit. The directors may also without placing the same to the reserve carry forward any profits which they may think prudent not to divide.
137. Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividend, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but no amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date or in the event that a unanimous resolution of all the members of the Company so resolves, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
138. The directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company in relation to shares of the Company and may also deduct from such dividend any other sums presently payable by him (the member) to the Company for any purpose.
139. Every general meeting declaring a dividend or bonus may direct payment of such dividend or bonus wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets of the Company and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the above, by the distribution of paid up shares, debentures or debenture stock of any other company or in anyone or more of such ways, and the directors shall give effect to such resolution, and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all members, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the directors, and generally make such arrangements for the allotment, acceptance and sale of such specific assets or certificates representing part of a shareholding or fractions of shares, or any part thereof, and otherwise as they see fit.

140. Subject to obtaining the approval of the annual general meeting of the Company, the directors may, in connection with any dividend which is approved or is proposed for approval at such annual general meeting or at any time prior to the next annual general meeting (and provided that a sufficient number of unissued ordinary shares in the Company is in existence for such purpose), decide and announce, prior to or simultaneously with their announcement for the said dividend and any relevant information in connection with the profits of the Company for the corresponding financial period or part thereof, that the members shall have the option to receive, instead of a payment of such dividend (or part thereof) additional ordinary shares in the Company credited as fully paid. In any such case the following provisions shall apply:-
- (a) The basis of such allotment shall be determined by the directors so that, to the extent possible, the value of the additional ordinary shares (which shall be determined by reference to the current average weighted price of the share from time to time) (and including any fractional entitlements) which shall be allotted instead of payment of a dividend shall be equal to the net amount of such dividend, in other words after deducting any taxes or contributions as required by law. For this purpose the "average weighted price" of an ordinary share shall be the average of the purchase and sale prices of the shares or securities of the Company on the Regulated Market or the unregulated market on which the shares of the Company have been admitted for trading at the closing of the first five working days during which the ordinary shares are traded excluding the corresponding dividend (ex-dividend), minus a percentage of five per cent. (5%) or as the directors may from time to time determine; provided that the directors shall have the right to modify the basis of allotment of such shares.
 - (b) The directors shall give notice to the members in respect of their option and shall send or make available together with or after such notice a form for making their choice in which the procedure to be followed shall be specified as well as the place and final deadline until which duly completed forms must be submitted to be valid.
 - (c) The dividend (or such part thereof in respect of which an option has been exercised) shall not be payable in respect of the ordinary shares in respect of which the said option has been duly exercised (the "chosen ordinary shares") and instead of payment thereof there shall be allotted additional ordinary shares to the chosen ordinary shares on the basis of the aforesaid method of allotment and the directors shall capitalise for this purpose such amounts as are credited to any reserves of the Company or represent share premium collected on the issue of any shares in the Company or which are derived from undistributed profits of the Company as the directors may determine and which shall be equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional ordinary shares which shall be allotted on this basis and shall apply the same for the full payment of the corresponding number of the unissued ordinary shares to be allotted to members, of the chosen ordinary shares as aforesaid.

- (d) The additional ordinary shares which shall be allotted shall have the same rights with the fully issued ordinary shares in the Company which shall have been issued except in relation to participation in the corresponding dividend (or option to re-investment in shares instead of it).
 - (e) The directors may take all actions which they consider to be necessary or appropriate for the implementation of the aforesaid capitalisation and the directors shall have full power for any adjustments which they shall consider appropriate in connection with fractional rights for the allotted shares.
141. Any dividend, interest or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by electronic transfer to the account or by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the account or registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named in the Register of Members or to such person and to such account or address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such electronic transfer shall be made to and every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the shares held by them as joint holders. Every such electronic transfer shall be made and every such cheque or warrant shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented thereby.
142. In respect of shares in uncertificated form, the Company may also pay any such dividend, interest or other moneys by means of the securities settlement system concerned (subject always to the facilities and requirements of that relevant system). Every such payment made by means of the securities settlement system shall be made in such manner as may be consistent with the facilities and requirements of the securities settlement system concerned. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, in respect of shares in uncertificated form, such payment may include the sending by the Company or by any person on its behalf of an instruction to the operator of the securities settlement system to credit the cash memorandum account of the holder or joint holders.
143. Without limiting any other method of payment which the Company may adopt, the directors may decide that payment can be made wholly or partly by such arrangements to enable a central securities depository (or its nominee(s)) or any such other member or members as the Directors shall from time to time determine to receive the relevant dividends in any currency or currencies other than the currency in which such dividends are declared. For the purposes of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the equivalent in any such other currency of any sum payable as a dividend shall be such rate or rates, and the payment thereof shall be on such terms and conditions, as the Directors may in their absolute discretion determine.

144. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the directors may decide that where the individual payment to be made by the Company to or in respect of a holder of any share or an owner of any share (each a “Relevant Person”) pursuant to a dividend or otherwise is for an amount of €10,00 or less (or such other amount as may be determined by an ordinary resolution from time to time) (the “Minimum Amount”), the method of payment shall be for the Relevant Person to issue a notice in writing to the Company requesting the payment of such amount. This notice shall include bank account details for an electronic funds transfer of the payment of that amount to the holder of shares and which notice shall be deemed to be an election for such method of payment as provided for in Article 141. If no such request in writing is received by the Company, the Company shall be under no obligation to pay such amount to the Relevant Person, and such dividend or other sum shall be treated as unclaimed, including for the purposes of Article 145. Any such notice received by the Company after the date on which the payment to which it pertains has been forfeited to the Company under Article 145, shall be invalid and void for all purposes, and disregarded by the Company.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, and subject to all applicable laws, the directors may from time to time prescribe the form of notice to be used by a Relevant Person for making a claim for payment referred to under this Article (and where such form is prescribed, the Company may reject a claim for payment not in the prescribed form) and otherwise make regulations from time to time governing the procedures to be followed by a Relevant Person in respect of claims for payment and the method for payment pursuant to this Article. The directors shall retain the discretion to make payments of less than the Minimum Amount notwithstanding any decision of the directors, or any regulations, pursuant to this Article. For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may make a payment pursuant to this Article 144 by any of the methods provided for in Article 140 at their sole discretion, including by cheque, regardless of whether the electronic payment details have been provided to the Company pursuant to this Article 144.

145. Any resolution declaring a dividend on shares of any class, whether a resolution of the Company in general meeting or a resolution of the directors, may specify that the same may be payable to the persons registered as the holders of such shares at the close of the business on a particular date, notwithstanding that it may be a date prior to that on which the resolution is passed, and thereupon the dividend shall be payable to them in accordance with their respective holdings so registered, but without prejudice to the rights inter se of transferors and transferees of any such shares in respect of such dividend. The provisions of this Article shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to capitalisations to be effected in pursuance of these Articles. All unclaimed dividends may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

146. If the Directors so resolve, any dividend which has remained unclaimed for six (6) years from the date of its declaration shall be forfeited in favor of the Company and cease to remain owing by the Company. The payment by the directors of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof.

ACCOUNTS

147. The directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:-
- (a) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
 - (b) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company; and
 - (c) the assets and liabilities of the Company.

Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept by the Company if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the Company's financial state and to explain its transactions.

148. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, or, subject to section 141(3) of the Law, at such other place or places as the directors think fit, and shall always be available to the directors for inspection.
149. The directors may from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of members not being directors, and no member (not being a director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by the Law or authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting.
150. The directors shall from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of the Law, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in general meeting such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts (where necessary) and reports as are referred to in the Law.
151. A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by the Law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in general meeting, together with a copy of the auditors' report shall, not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting, be available free of charge to every member of, and every holder of debentures of the Company and to every person registered under Article 31 above either in printed or electronic form as they shall elect.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

152. The Company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the directors, resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively, or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted, distributed and credited as fully paid up to and amongst the members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and the directors shall be bound to give effect to such resolution.

Provided that the share premium account and the capital redemption reserve fund may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.

153. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, and the directors shall have full power to make such provisions by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit in relation to shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and every agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such members.

AUDIT

154. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties shall be regulated in accordance with the Law.

NOTICES

155. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either by personal delivery or by sending it by post, email, fax or other means of transmission of written documents to him or to his registered address, or the electronic address or fax number supplied by him to the Company for this purpose. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, stamping and posting a letter containing the notice, in the event of a notice of a general meeting or board meeting, with the expiration of 72 hours from its posting and in any other event, to have been effected at the time when such letter should have been delivered by the post office in its ordinary course of business. Where the notice is sent by email or fax, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by the transmission of the fax or email to the correct number or address and to have been effected on the first business date after such communication or transmission.
156. A notice may be given by the Company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the Register of Members in respect of the share.
157. A notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter or in any manner in which notice may be given pursuant to Article 152 above, addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like descriptions, at the address, if any, in or outside Cyprus supplied for this purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such an address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.
158. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner herein before described to:-
- (a) every member except those members who (having no registered address in Cyprus) have not supplied to the Company an address within or outside Cyprus for the giving of notices to them;
 - (b) every person upon whom the ownership of a share devolves by reason of his being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and
 - (c) the auditor for the time being and the directors of the Company.

Provided that the accidental omission to give notice to, or the nonreceipt of notice of a meeting by a person or persons entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the business which shall, or which has been carried out at such meeting.

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

WINDING UP

159. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Law, divide amongst the members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may, for such purpose set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees, upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.

UNTRACEABLE SHAREHOLDERS

160. (a) The Company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable any share of a holder or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission if and provided that:

(i) for a period of six years no cheque, or warrant, or electronic payment/wire transfer or stablecoins sent by the Company through electronic communication addressed to the holder or to the person entitled by transmission to the share at his electronic address on the Register or at the last known address given by the holder or the person entitled by transmission to which cheques or warrants or electronic payments/wire transfers or stablecoins are to be sent has been cashed and no communication has been received by the Company from the holder or the person entitled by transmission (provided that during such six years period at least one dividend shall have become payable in respect of such share);

(ii) at the expiration of the said period of six years by advertisement in the Company's official website, the Company has given notice of its intention to sell such share;

(iii) during the further period of three months after the date of the advertisement and prior to the exercise of the power of sale the Company has not received any communication from the holder or person entitled by transmission; and

(iv) the Company has first given notice in writing to the appropriate Sections of the Stock Exchanges of its intention to sell such shares.

(b) Where a share, which is to be sold as provided in this Article, is held in uncertificated form, the directors may authorise some person to do all that is necessary under the Regulations governing uncertificated shares to change such share into certificated form prior to its sale under the Article 160(b).

(c) To give effect to any such sale the Company may appoint any person to execute as transferor an instrument of transfer of such share and such instrument of transfer shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder or the person entitled by the transmission to such share. The transferee shall be entered in the Register as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

(d) The Company shall account to the holder or other person entitled to such share for the net proceeds of such sale by carrying all moneys in respect thereof to a separate account which shall be a permanent debt of the Company and the Company shall be deemed to be a debtor and not a trustee in respect thereof for such holder or other person. Moneys carried to such separate account may be either employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments as the directors may think fit, from time to time.

INDEMNITY

161. In addition to the provisions of section 197 of the Law, the directors, executive directors, managers, agents, auditors, secretary and other officers or employees for the time being of the Company and the trustees for the time being (if any) who act in relation to the business of the Company and each and every one of them and each and every one of their successors and executors, shall be indemnified and secured out of the assets and profits of the Company against all actions, expenses, charges, losses, indemnities and costs which he or any of them, their successors or executors or any of them have sustained or incurred or may sustain or incur by reason of any contract they entered into or any act they did or collaborated in the performance of, or omitted to do at or during the performance of their duties or alleged duties in their respective offices or trusts, other than those (if any) which they may sustain or incur as a consequence of their own wilful act, neglect or omission respectively and none of them shall be accountable for the acts, receipt, neglects or omission of the other or others of them or because he collaborated in any receipt for the sake of compliance, or for any bankers or other persons to whom any money belonging to the Company will have been given or may be given or deposited for safe keeping, or for any bankers, financiers or other persons in whose hands, any money or other proprietary assets of the Company may come, or for any insufficiency or imperfection or any defect in the title of the Company in any security by which any money belonging to the Company will be invested or disposed of, or for any loss, misfortune or damage which results from any of the above causes, or which may occur in the performance of their respective offices or trusts, or in relation thereto, other than those which result from their own wilful act or omission respectively.

162. The board of directors may, to the extent permitted by the Law, purchase and maintain for, or for the benefit of, any person who holds or who has at any time held a relevant office insurance against any liability or expense incurred by him in relation to the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries or any third party in respect of any act or omission in the actual or purported discharge of the duties of the relevant officer concerned or otherwise in connection with the holding of that relevant office.
