Federal Court Appeal

The Company notes the decision of the Australian Federal Court of Appeal with regards to the 2024 judgment and the 2025 penalty regarding Mr Karantzis, largely upholding the original judgements.

The Full Court allowed the appeal concerning the terms of one declaration made against Mr Karantzis during the liability judgment and ordered that the declaration be amended.

The Company is evaluating the matter and will update shareholders in due course.